The results of this evaluation are based upon the developmental quotient. An average score falls between 85 and 115. A child who has a score of 77 or below, in at least one area of development, is eligible for early intervention services.

☐ Eligible for Early Intervention Services Reason(s): (Check all that apply) ☐ Diagnosis (Specify) _____
☐ Risk Factors                      ☐ Developmental Delay                      ☐ Clinical Judgment

☐ Your child is NOT eligible for Early Intervention services. You have the right to dispute the finding that your child is not eligible for Early Intervention services at this time. The program is available to answer your questions about the evaluations and explain your rights. You can also refer to the Family Rights Notice for more information. All children can be re-referred until Age 3 if you continue to have questions/concerns.
